PROJECTS

- QuicKicks (Android App): Using a backdoor in the Adidas website, my programming team at HackTX 2016 was able to bypass the Adidas purchasing queue for limited quantity shoes and automatically enter users into the Adidas system. This allowed QuicKicks users to purchase rare shoes at a much higher success rate than if they attempted to buy from the Adidas website without our application.
- Web Development (Javascript, HTML/CSS): I run a portfolio website at <https://sahib.ch/> and a blog on WordPress at <https://theambry.wordpress.com/>. I also maintain the domain (<http://www.apricitymagazine.com/>)
- Raspberry Pi Media Center: I converted my Raspberry Pi into a media center for movies, TV shows, podcasts, and games—mainly for my mom to be able to watch Hindi movies and shows.
